

your business on the web

August 2008

Dear Clients & Friends

An all new way to manage your website content is on the way, thanks to Andalucia Web Solutions you can now have your site built in Drupal so that it is easy to make changes as you wish. Also in this edition, spice up your summer with news from the 32nd ICANN international Public Meeting in Paris.

What is Drupal?

By Matthew Wittering

To understand Drupal we need to know that a Content Management System (CMS) is an application that you can use to make changes to your site without the need for expensive web site editing tools.

New look for our web site!

By Stacy Prendeville

We are are proud to announce the launch of the new look Andalucia Web Solutions web site that has been built using the all new company favoured Drupal System. Its been some time now since our old site needed updating but with over 100 pages of content it has been no small task. The new design reflects the Andalucia Web Solutions offices, sleek and minimal and comes with a whole host of new features whereby you can read everything our previous clients have to say, view our latest work, find the latest internet news and search for support articles to help you with any hosting and drupal issues.

We are not finished here either! The site will continue to grow and improve not only as a showcase but as a tool for all of our clients. So, stay tuned for further information, and of course we welcome any suggestions. Contact me at stacy@andaluciaws.com with any comments about the new site.

When our sister company, www.andalucia.com, was founded in 1996 it was one of the first websites to be established in the region. Since then Andalucia.com has supported continual growth. Worldwide it is the most visited web site about Southern Spain.

Every month Andalucia.com receives over 450,000 visits from people who are specifically looking for information related to travel, tourism, property investment and living in Andalucia. This makes www.andalucia.com the undisputed market leader in its sector and the best website on which to advertise your business.
